

Stakeholder Engagement 2016
TRAINING round-table meeting – To design innovative training methodologies to support the business

Title: Anecdotal Training

SUBJECT:

Insert concrete and specific successful and failure cases in training courses, which relate to the group's experiences and to those of the individual companies which belong to it, traced according to an international benchmark.

PURPOSE:

To encourage learning and participation, widen the field of perception and knowledge, overcome the risk of self-reference.
